PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Credit Union Movement is now in its second century of service; and

WHEREAS, credit unions provide a means whereby people may pool their savings and mutually assist each other to fill their needs for useful credit at a low cost; and

WHEREAS, these credit unions not only promote the economic security of their members, but also strengthen democracy, encourage individual responsibility and the practice of true brotherhood and thus benefit our entire Commonwealth; and

WHEREAS, the third Thursday of each October is internationally observed as Credit Union Day in recognition of the outstanding service being rendered to the people of South Dakota by their credit unions;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim Thursday, October 15, 1953 as in South Dakota and urge our people to give fitting recognition at this time to the many benefits brought to them through credit unions. I extend to the leaders and members of the credit unions my greetings, congratulations and best wishes for continued success in serving their fellowmen.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 12th day of October, 1953.
